

We are Seattle.

Every year, more than 45,000 students, including 1,000 international students, choose Seattle Colleges — the only community colleges located within the beautiful and vibrant city of Seattle, Washington. Come join us!

North Seattle College

North Seattle College is five miles north of the city center in a convenient and semi-urban location, just minutes from downtown Seattle. Within walking distance are the popular Green Lake neighborhood, a shopping mall, and the subway station.

Seattle Central College

Seattle Central College is located in the Capitol Hill neighborhood — an urban environment in a lively section of downtown Seattle, surrounded by coffee houses, shops, and restaurants.

South Seattle College

South Seattle College is on a hilltop overlooking the city center, eight miles from downtown, in a residential neighborhood of West Seattle. South's large campus, manicured lawns, and beautiful gardens contribute to its traditional college campus atmosphere.
