- You are required to attend orientation on the campus where you plan to start your college-level program. Lunch will be provided. Students who will start their studies in the Seattle Colleges Institute of English (SCIE) must also attend the SCIE orientation at Central.
- Bring your passport, I-20 form, U.S. address, and any proof of English proficiency you may have when you check in for orientation.
- Drop-in advising is optional and is only for students who have questions for an advisor related to enrollment issues. Examples include choosing/changing classes and immigration questions. For hours, see the North, Central, and South drop-in advising schedules.
- Unresolved technical issues related to student portals, ctcLink, etc., will be addressed after each campus orientation at 2pm.
- Information on class registration was provided in your admission acceptance materials. You may also receive updates on this topic from our Admissions Office and/or SCIE between now and orientation, so check your email inbox frequently.
- Complete the tasks on the pre-arrival checklist as soon as possible.
- IP offices are open Monday through Thursday from 8am to 4:30pm and on Friday from 8am to 12pm.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
